

How High is My Waste band?

Flop Idol Dan feat. Ciccone

Announcing the debut release from Pop Idol reject, Daniel Cairns. Made despondent by the harshness of Judge Simon Cowells comments to contestants on the program he decided to make a song influenced by his experience, it's not vitriolic, it's tongue in cheek.

Written and recorded with the help of Punk-Rock band, Ciccone (Have appeared on Kerrang! TV, MTV, Radio 1 and posses an army of fans...), visit www.ciccone.co.uk for more on them. The release cost £30 to make in a small bedroom studio in North London and will be a charity single, with 40% of profits donated to the League Against Cruel Sports.

Already having received strong media coverage from The Sun, The Sunday Telegraph, The Oxford Mail, RISE, IC Berkshire, New and the BBC among others Daniel is now aiming to raise enough money to release the single as a Christmas contender and show Simon Cowell that he should be prepared to take some criticism as well.

For copies of the single, to arrange interviews, live dates or features please get in touch through the details below and visit www.antiidol.co.uk for more information.

Press / Management

Chris Chinchilla
Jon Chinchilla

chris@chinchilla-music.co.uk / 07986 098 858
jon@chinchilla-music.co.uk / 07957 244 353

Daniel Cairns

anti-idol@ntlworld.com / 07800 735 543